

WORKSHOPS AT SAI INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL BY UK TRAINERS

SAI International School organized two workshops in association with the British Council on “Confident in Business Communication” and “Performing Shakespeare”.

SAI International School has always given great opportunities to the students to get global exposure in order to become leaders of tomorrow creating unique and novel platforms for the students to expand their learning vistas wider and wider.

British Council in association with the Central School of Speech and Drama (CSSD), London conducted these innovative series of workshops on Performing Shakespeare, Improvisation in Acting and Voice and Business Communication skills on 18th and 19th of May.

Eminent trainers Mark Kane and Anne Walsh from the School of Professional and Community Development of the Central School of Speech and Drama, London were the trainers on both the days.

The first day was exclusively for the students and the second day was for the corporate sector. The students, teachers and the other participants made immense use of the day by learning techniques of effective communication. Interesting and fun filled activities kept the participants on their toes throughout. The participants from the corporate sector were from Hotel Mayfair lagoon, Ortel communication, KIIT International School and the Central University of Law.

The chairman of the School expressed his great satisfaction that the school could invite exponents from the famous Central School of Speech and Drama which is undoubtedly a rare opportunity.

CELEBRATION OF BASTILLE DAY

14th July 2011

International days are celebrated in the school to keep up the global dimension in the school ethos. The idea of preparing the children to become global citizens in future is primary goal of the School. The students need to understand and respect culture of all the countries in the world irrespective of any caste, creed or color.

The National Day of France was celebrated in the school on 14th July with Great Spirit and enthusiasm. A special assembly was conducted in the morning. The students performed wonderful music and a very entertaining skit on the French revolution was presented by the class IX students titled 'History Come Alive'. Ms. Mario Malfatto- a French volunteer with the Jeevan Rekha Parishad (NGO) was the chief guest who showed a power point presentation to describe in details about the French revolution and the observation of Bastille Day in France. The class IX students also sang a very melodious French song.

Bastille Day is the French National holiday, celebrated on 14 July each year. In France, it is called Fête Nationale ("National Celebration") in official parlance, or more commonly le quatorze juillet ("14 July"). It commemorates the 1790 Fête de la Federation, held on the first anniversary of the storming of the Bastille on 14 July 1789. The anniversary of the storming of the Bastille fortress-prison was seen as a symbol of the uprising of the modern nation, and of the reconciliation of all the French inside the constitutional monarchy which preceded the First Republic, during the French Revolution.

The celebration of Bastille Day looked very colourful with teachers wearing the French flag as a batch all through the day. The School was decorated with the French National Flag.
