

Chairman of SAI International School Bhubaneswar was felicitated by the prestigious Media Forum Award at the 2nd National Media Expo 2011

Chairman of SAI International School Bhubaneswar was felicitated by the prestigious Media Forum Award at the 2nd National Media Expo 2011.

The Bhubaneswar Media Forum was the organizer of the distinctive national event for the second consecutive time in the city. The two day long Expo was inaugurated on the 29th Of May 2011 which showcased the various leading newspapers and periodicals in various vernacular languages including the print and the electronic media, providing overall information on the world of media to the expected twenty five thousand visitors hailing from all walks of life. The expo exhibited about one thousand exhibits of newspapers and periodicals.

The award for the Best School was conferred upon Shri B.K Sahoo, Chairman of SAI International School, Bhubaneswar in this august forum along with other eminent personalities for his notable contributions in the field of education.

The award recognizes Mr. Sahoo's laudable efforts in pioneering the making of the First Day Boarding International School of the State which in its fourth year of functioning has already made a significant mark in the country. The school which aims towards making holistic education its valued principle and aims reaching beyond excellence has made learning enjoyable and permanent.

The school which has won numerous awards in its four years of functioning including the Prestigious ISA Award for being the best school from the British Council for its exemplary contributions, the Green School Award for its laudable efforts in maintaining a green campus also has numerous winners in the field of Science, Art, Sports and Education who have earned national and International acclaim for their praiseworthy contributions.